re reciprocal arrangements in action under rule 26 & D.O.I. Rules

It is stated that persons against whom orders under rule 26 or 129 of the Defence of India Rules are proposed to be taken sometimes abscond to Indian States to avoid arrest. 'To avoid consequent difficulty, the Govt. of India suggest that in such circumstances, if the Provincial Government concerned approaches the Indian State and if the State is satisfied that good reasons exist for the return of the individual to British India such State should pass an order under rule 26 of their version of the Defence of India Rules and direct the individual to remove himself by a specified time and a specified route. The British Indian authorities will arrange for his reception on arrival in British India.

Such an agreement will be mutual

As the agreement is stated to be mutual and the State or the Provincial Government, as the case may be, will pass orders only if satisfied that there are good reasons, we may perhaps agree to the arrangement proposed.

Submitted for orders with a draft to the Residency.

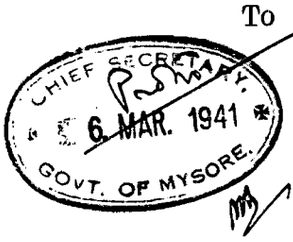
FROM

THE SECRETARY TO THE HON'BLE THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

To



The Chief Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

Dated Bangalore, the 4th March *194*1.

Reciprocal arrangements for preventing persons against whom it is proposed to take action under Rule 26 of the Defence of India Rules from finding refuge in Indian States and vice versa.

SIR,

I am directed to state that it has been brought to the notice of the Government of India that persons against whom it is proposed to take action in British India under Rules 26 or 129 of the Defence of India Rules sometimes abscond to Indian States to avoid arrest and that difficulty is experienced by Provincial Governments in consequence. It has been suggested by the Government of India that this difficulty could be overcome if the Indian States were to agree, if approached by the Provincial Government concerned and if satisfied that there were good reasons for the return of the individual to British India, to take action under their versions of Rule 26(1)(a) of the Defence of India Rules by way of directing such persons to remove themselves to British India by a specified time and a specified route, the British Indian authorities arranging for their reception on their arrival in British India. It would be understood that such an agreement would be reciprocal.

2. I am to request you kindly to inform me whether the Government of Mysore agree to the arrangements suggested. The matter being one of considerable urgency, I am to request that a reply may be sent at a very early date.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

SECRETARY TO THE RESIDENT.
